SUBJECT: Addition of a Concentration in Conducting

The School of Music received approval at the February 5, 2014 AP&P meeting to add a concentration to the Master of Music in Performance (680*/50.0903). Please note that a new major code had to be created for this concentration because there were no other coding options for a new concentration under the existing 558* code. The current coding for the major and concentrations under the Master of Music in Performance (558*/50.0903) will continue to be used.
