Application for In-State Tuition for
Full-Time Faculty and Staff of the University of North Carolina

Under North Carolina General Statutes Section (G.S.) 116-143.2 notwithstanding subsection (b) of this section, a person who is a full-time employee, in a permanent position, of The University of North Carolina, or is the spouse or dependent child of a full-time employee, in a permanent position, of The University of North Carolina, and who is a legal resident of North Carolina, qualifies as a resident for tuition purposes without having maintained that legal residence for at least 12 months immediately prior to his or her classification as a resident for tuition purposes.

- The employee/applicant must provide a written declaration from his/her employing institution verifying employment status as a full-time permanent employee of the University of North Carolina.

- The employee/applicant must be found to have established North Carolina legal residence prior to commencement of the term for which the benefit of G.S. 16.143.2 is sought. Applications for the tuition benefit will be permitted with respect only to academic terms commencing on or after the date on which the applicant delivers, in proper order, a completed application and all supporting documentation.
